ONCE

upon a time

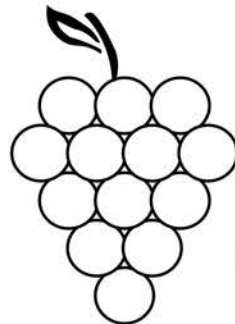

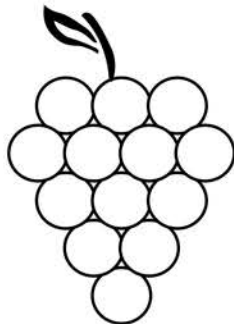

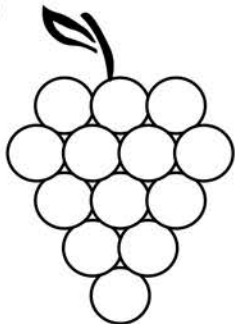

a Princess named Perlette lived in the vast kingdom of Royale. Royale was full of vineyards that produced the most delicious grapes, known throughout the land for being sweet and good for the body. One day, while walking through the rows of grapevines, she spied a dragon in the sky, circling, smelling the ripening fruit. Then, she heard the sound of a horse approaching. It was Prince Perlon, who had followed the dragon all the way from the land of Sugarone!

Princess Perlette knew that Royale and all its beautiful grapes would be safe.
